NOTICE

In the case of persons settling accounts in the form of tax on recorded revenue without deductible costs, the lump sum due must be documented with a certificate from the Tax Office on the amount of the lump sum due in the calendar year which the declaration refers to.

In the case of persons settling accounts in the form of a flat-rate tax, the amount of the tax is documented with the decision(s) of the Tax Office on the amount of the flat-rate tax in the given calendar year. The amount of the flat-rate tax reduced by the amount of health insurance premiums deducted from the tax is the tax due.
